Your hands reveal your heart. If your hands are gentle and loving, your patient will feel the sincerity of your heart and the Lords healing will flow through you both. Remember Lomi-Lomi is a praying work.

Aunty Margaret Machado

Touch is as important as the air we breathe.

We need to connect with others through touch on many levels. We touch people in many ways.

We express our connection through all our senses, and the deepest form of expression is the touch of skin. Touch gives us warmth, confidence and acceptance. Touch can have a healing effect on many levels: emotional, mental and physical. Many old holding patterns stored in the tissue can be dissolved through respectful, loving touch. Touch can also melt emotional memories and invite integration. Holistic touch brings us deeper into contact with ourselves.
